

WHEN: Thursday 9 May 2019

TIME: 10.45am - 11.45am

WHERE: Centenary Hall, Newington College,
200 Stanmore Road, Stanmore NSW

CONTACT: Mrs Ann Jagger, Festival Co-ordinator
ajagger@newington.nsw.edu.au

Ms Sabine Tanase, Assistant Festival Co-ordinator
stanase@newington.nsw.edu.au

COST: Free of charge

GUEST SPEAKER

Sean Choolburra

Sean Choolburra is known as one of Australia's funniest and most enduring Indigenous Australian comedians. Born in Townsville QLD, he comes from a family of 12. His comedy is created from a wide variety of life experiences, stories and observations.

Sean's entertaining presentations engage and educate students, presenting traditional cultural information with humour and variety. Sean's brilliant personality and use of music and dance make students excited to learn.

Dance, stories, painting, fire creation, didgeridoo playing: all are presented with a wonderful array of artefacts, from fishing nets to hunting shields.

Students are encouraged to dance, sing and participate.

"Students were fully engaged during the whole performance and will remember aspects of Aboriginal culture because it was presented in a meaningful way, with variety and humour." - Foster Primary VIC

Newington College
LITFEST 2019